Vedette Directory,

UTAH.

Area, 100, 382 square miles—Population 90,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population, 17,000,) situate on the great highway westward, in the grand centre of the golden circle comprising Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The City is one of the most beautiful in the Union, and the largest between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic, and its view of island Lakes peerlessly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and contains 260 blocks, of 10 acres each, (each divided into 8 lots,) and 4 public squares. Its level streets, running due east and west, and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams of water flowing by both sides of every street, to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties, the towns of which range from 6,000 to 600 population.

DIRECT ROUTE TO THE GOLD FIELDS OF MONTANA!

VIA EAGLE BRIDGE, situated near Eagle Rock Ferry, (known in Campbell's and other guide books, as Rickard's Ferry.) The Ferry is in good running order. Emigrants and freighters will find it to their advantage to cross at the bridge, thereby avoiding the danger of crossing a rapid and turbulent stream by means of boats. In connection with the Bridge and Ferry, we have a General Store, where every article required by travelers and stock can be obtained. We have also a Blacksmith Shop, where all kinds of work will be done at moderate prices.

Freighters, to insure a supply of grain at the Bride or Ferry, should address a letter to the proprietors, via Great Salt Lake City, Utah, stating the probable time of arrival and the amount required.

FROM ARIZONA.—Late advices from Arizona, June 17th, contain the following:

Left Fort Yuma on the 10th. The Colorado river is unusually high, higher than at any other time since 1862, and it is still rising; the fort is on a mere island—the surrounding country being all flooded. Mr. Inger's adobe buildings, consisting of a blacksmith shop, a paint shop and other houses, have been washed away.

The Colorado Steam Navigation Co.'s steamers, Mohave and Colorado are engaged in bringing freight up the river to Fort Yuma. The Cocapah is on the stocks at the mouth of the river, being remodeled. The Esmeralda is between La Paz and Fort Yuma, and the Nina Tilden still remains at the latter place.

It is reported that the mail between La Paz and Prescott was robbed by the Indians and one man killed. Company E, 4th Cal. Infantry, under command of Lieut. Blake, is in pursuit of the robbers.

Mr. Dyer, of Prescott, reports that Weaver, the old pioneer, is not dead, as rumored. The old trapper was in company with a party that had a fight with the Indians; four of the whites were killed. Weaver was found badly wounded, and was taken to the hospital at Fort Whipple, where he still remains. It is thought he will recover.

DISPATCH FROM SECRETARY STANTON TO SCHUYLER COLFAX.—During the hour which the the telegraph worked on the 23d, the following was received by Colfax, when at Salt Lake City.

WASHINGTON, June 21.

TO HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX:

I congratulate you on your safe arrival thus far on your journey. Nothing of any political importance has transpired here recently except the withdrawal of belligerents rights from the rebels by France, England and Belgium. The President has appointed Provisional Governors in North Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi, and will probably soon appoint for the other rebel States. There has not any necessity for a special session of Congress occurred, and none is expected. Seward and son are recovering. Mrs. Seward is dying. Through the day rebel leaders are applying for pardon and amnesty. The army is being rapidly reduced. Our foreign relations are reported by Seward to be in a satisfactory condition. Wishing you a safe and prosperous journey, I am yours, truly,

EDWIN M. STANTON.

IRISH PROVERBS.—Men of straw don't make the best brick.

It's a narrow bed that has no turning.

When money is sent flying out of the window, it's poverty that comes in at the door.

The pig that pleases to live, must live to please.

One man may steal a hedge, whereas another daren't even as much as look at a horse.

Short rents make long friends; and it holds good equally with your landlord and your clothes.

The Daily [illegible]

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 186[illegible]

Improvement and Progress.

We [illegible], that there is to be found within the limits of the older states or in the region of the Pacific slope, many places where from small means a more profitable investment can be made than in Utah. And that this is fully realized by the monied communities elsewhere, is fully evident by the number of those already here and the daily accessions which they receive. This change in the status of the community has been owing to circumstances, which (however much the self styled regrets of "this people may strive to ignore them") still exist, are evident to the thinking class at home and abroad; which in addition are potent enough in a short time to change entirely the position occupied by this Territory, with regard to her Sister States and Territories, which no art, cunning, hypocrisy or pretended recreation, will be sufficiently powerful to stay in the onward course. We, congratulate, therefore, and with reason, the former inhabitants, the actual residents, and the future population on a changed state of affairs in regard to their relations with Government and even greater changes in their municipal rules. May a day soon come (and there is every likelihood of it) when municipal rule and rulers will be something else than emanations from the shameless despotism heretofore consistently and persistently engaged in doing its utmost under a transparent and flimsy gauze of religion, to overwhelm and subdue the the rights and sentiments of humam liberty and the freedom of mankind at large.

"About Montana."—The Virginia, Nevada, Union of the 8th, has an article under the above heading, or rather a contribution from one E. H. Morton, of that place, but at the present time a pilgrim prospector or speculator in Montana. Well he writes and whines, and whines and writes, about things and matters that don't suit him in that Territory just like "Virginians" of Silverland do generally, when they strike on something that's a leetle smarter, richer or bigger thing than they are—their own selves! Extracts from this Morton's letter are quoted in the Sacramento Union and other less able papers of the Golden State, thus throwing a slur—with shallow thinking fools—on the greatness and the glory of our young sister Territory. Give Morton a wide berth, boys of the Post. Note the following from ye nincompoop! "There are none of the placer diggings such as we used to have in California, at least none that I have yet heard of. It is not a good country for a poor man, and I would not advise people to come here. There are some very rich claims here, but most of them are owned by Missourians, and have been very badly worked; they never will get more than half the gold out of them. Now, to tell you the truth, the Jews and Missourians have got the country and do about as they please with it. If we do not strike something here before fall we shall most likely return to your city or to California to winter, for seven long months is too long a time to be housed up, with no prospects ahead. The winters are very cold, and to burrow up here till spring is a little to much to suit us." (The italics and exclamation point are ours.)

A recent writer discoursed thusly on the interest subject of wives:

> Men marry for fortune, and sometimes to please their fancy; but, much oftener than is suspected, they consider what the world will say of it—how such a woman in their friends' eyes will look at the head of a table. Hence we see so many insipid beauties made wives of, that could not have struck the particular fancy of any man that had any fancy at all. These I call "furniture wives;" as men buy furniture, pictures, because they suit this or that niche in their dining parlors.

[VIA DENVER CITY.]

New York, June 28.

The Times' Washington special says, that ex-Senator Foote and C. J. Gould, were the only persons of note, who applied for pardon yesterday. Foote's application is dated Montreal.

The Assistant Secretary of War Dana, will surrender his office to his successor, on Thursday next, and will immediately start for the West to assume the duties of editor of the Chicago Republican.

The Herald's Norfolk special says, that Jeff Davis' health is excellent. At the municipal election in Norfolk on the 24th ult., there was much excitement, heavy votes were polled. A large number of returned soldiers from the rebel army took every oath required of them to entitle them to francise.

E. C. Tabb, a prominent lawyer, was elected Mayor. Walter Taylor, late Adjutant General for General Lee, was elected Register. There was several fights in Norfolk recently, growing out of difficulties between the soldiers and the negroes.

The Times' Washington special says, the Committee on the Conduct of the War in the forthcoming report details the savage and inhuman treatment our prisoners received from the rebels. The surgeon's report of the Richmond prisons for one quarter shows that a fraction over one-half of all cases entered resulted in death. Most of these cases were the result of inhuman treatment and neglect. After our men died their bodies were treated like so many carcasses of dead animals. Their bodies were piled up in the dead houses, and their eyes and cheeks eaten out by rats before they were put in their coffins.

The World on the Mormons.

The following we clip from the New York Daily World of June 2d, one of the leading papers of the east and of the Union. Read it—through:

At 11 o'clock yesterday morning the tug Rattler disembarked at Castle Garden, by successive instalments, six hundred and thirty converts to the gospel of Mormon. One-half of these were women, and every age was represented in the motley gathering, from muling and choking infancy to the centenarian in spectacles. These left Liverpool April 29th, in the ship Bella Woods, under the superintendence of Elder Sherman, and were received at Castle Garden by Elder Taylor, the general agent on this side.

We met this Taylor in 1862 in the city of London, and were readily recognized by him yesterday. He was there at the head of a Mormon bureau in Florence street, Islington, associated with Joe Smith, son of Hiram and nephew of Joe Smith, Sr. The bureau of Islington was one of many in the old world, where there are at present upwards of a hundred and fifty missionaries constantly at work. In the two years intervening between our interview and the present, these six hundred and thirty folks have been "converted" and baptized. Five hundred and fifty-eight Mormons from Hamburg, chiefly North Germans, are at this time en route for New York and another ship from Port Elizabeth, South Africa, contains sixty white Africans, who are thus making almost the circumnavigation of the globe to lay their bones in Deseret.

Yet we are informed by Elder Taylor that a hundred thousand immigrants from Europe have been in all brought out during the twenty-three years in which the Saints have preached up and down Europe, and that this season will not witness so great accessions as the last three.

The chief boss of the proselytization in Europe, is Elder Daniel H. Wells, an American. He directs the star of empire, and is looked upon as a very remarkable revivalist.

The present lot of immigrants, mostly women, were brought across the briny deep "on the cheap"—for twenty dollars a head. Eighteen dollars a head, additional, is intended to take them through by immigrant cars and ox train to the polygamic Promised Land.

This is the cheapest lot of wives it has been our privilege to see, and the fact accounts for the case with which so many can be kept going by one man. They will be eleven weeks on the way, and a number of cockney youths among them who expected to shoot buffaloes on the Battery may gratify their carnivorous aspirations on the march.

"They eat little," said Elder Taylor, "and pray often" (!) "They are so curious to see the New Jerusalem that their curiosity keeps them alive till they reach it" (!). [We believe you, old boy!)

The tug Rattler accommodated about a hundred of them at every trip she made; and when these came up the gang-planks to Castle Garden, they looked like the emptying of the old carpetbags and portmanteaus they carried. About two-thirds of them were English, of the extremest cockney religion. Mormonism may cure the souls of these, but it cannot mend their dialect. They took posession of the land as soon as they arrived on it, dropped their bags, beds and tinnery immediately, and taking huge clasp-knives from their pockets began to cut bread and cheese, poking it down their throats with the knife. The Londoner was there—he who goes out for a thoughtful walk on Sabbath morning with a bull-terrior under his arm; the Manchester man, stoop-backed by working at the loom; and heaps of Welchmen, short of body and stolid of face. These Welch are obeying in this immigration, an ethnological rather than a religious law. They have resisted for centuries any effort to be denationalized, or to absorb their language and habits in those of their conquerors. So they are quitting their Welch mountains for the Valley of Deseret; and accepting polygamy for the sake of a sanctuary.

The land which produced Gothe and Lessing contributed to the scene at Castle Garden many buxom maidens in blue stockings and short peticoats, to whom bonnets were an aversion and teethbrushes in vain. They will doubtless make excellent wives in the New Jerusalem, but one of them should be enough for ordinary human nature. They ate their lunch in our presence, and judging by its amount we thought it their day's ration. There were some Scotch in the party, and we were told, three Irishmen. It is not probable that the Scotch converts will become extensive polygamists, if expense is to be a leading feature of the Mormon economy; the Irish Mormons looked out of place. Paddy, with four wives on his arm, would cut an awkward figure anywhere. It is to be observed that the Mormon elders make very few converts in the United States, at present. The public mind has become very well informed as to their social and political shortcomings, so they draw their raw levies from abroad.

The mass of these people seemed to us profoundly ignorant. We addressed a pleasant looking English girl, who sat on the floor with a baby on her lap. Her hair had the freshness of Kentish dew, and the soft moistness of her eye was that of the Pilgrim mothers:

"Are you anxious to reach your destination?"

"Yes, indeed, sir. I'm sure I didn't think it so far. Is it dangerous to cross the desert? Brother Sherman says we are to have a beautiful city. Have you ever been there?"

Not for their soul's sake, but for their hope's sake, these simple beings are on the way to the wilderness. We talked to this girl, whose manners were quite artless, of the accounts she had received in England, and her simple fancy had been stirred to enthuiasm at the prospect of living apart from the world in eternal psalm-singing(?) She had left her husband behind her, as he refused to look toward the New Jerusalem, and with the easy adaptability of her sex she will probably reconcile herself to a niche in some plethoric old Saint's seraglio!

There were some of the women who needed only cold water and a fine-tooth comb to be quite covetable. Their eyes were bright, their faces fresh and their figures tall and shapely. We saw two who were in the tow of a gray-bearded pard, whom they addressed as Brother Jonas. He was straining under their baggage like a broken-winded pack-horse, and presented a suggestive picture of the pleasures of double-blessedness. Now and then he would look up at them from under his pannier of boxes and bedding with an irresistible tenderness, and it was evident, from his addressing them as "Sister," that he had not yet a marriage certificate. There were three sisters, Welsh girls, of the party—ruddy, amiable, broad-shouldered—who were treated with much attention, as desirable acquisitious on the score of their health and housewifery. Between them they owned a huge mattress, several valises and an infinity of pots and kettles. These were carried by some representative specimens of the Bow Bell cockney who dropped their aspirates all over Castle Garden. If the route of these cockneys be industriously examined, aspirates as large as sneezes will be picked up, enough to drive a windmill.

Old age was not behindhand in numbers. There was an old lady in her eighty-fifth year among these chosen people. She wore double glasses, but hopped around very actively, and, like the woman in the miracle, carried her own bed. What object this old creature could have in traveling six thousand miles, it is hard to say. She had no relative along with her, but seemed to be in good odor with everybody, and when last observed was sitting on a trunk, looking at the painted ceiling of Castle Garden, as if it would be a good place from which to be "translated."

The scene of these zealots, huddled upon the shelving steps and along the great floor of the dim round building was like a beggar's pantomine. They chatted in an orderly way together, and ate their sausage and brown bread with high zest; and the young and the old mixed up together, with women in gray hairs and women in soft faces, and women with babes at the breast, and creeping children and one-legged zealots, and girls in faded finery, made a tout ensemble like Rag Fair.

There, on the spot where Jenny Lind's sweet notes rang like a lark's in a barn, and Fanny Elssler made motion music, these worn and hopeful people, with the ocean behind them, looked to the desert before, and departed to swell that strange and zealot "civilization" for which the decency of mankind forbids charity, and which must be scattered if it cannot be annihilated!

PROPOSALS FOR BEEF.—As per advertisement appearing in our columns, Capt Robert Holmes, Commissary of Subsistence, Volunteers, Denver, Colorado, solicits bids for supplies of fresh beef for Forts Collins, Halleck, &c.

As much nitrate of soda as can be held between the thumb and finger, it is said, if thrown into a vase of water, will preserve flowers for the space of a fortnight. This may be an interesting fact to the ladies.

A POET in the Nebraska City News concludes a long poem with the following lines. They contain more truth than poetry:

> Well, Such is Life! Whom the Gods love
> Die young. Whom they hate, live and prosper,
> And are elected Delegates in Congress
> From the several Territories,

A new store is opening near the Salt Lake House, third door north. Our clever friend, Kline, of Kline & Lavin, Denver and Virginia city, has come on from Colorado and the States, with a stock of fresh goods, in the clothing and furnishing line, which he intends to sell out here at unprecedently low prices.

THE San Francisco Examiner speaks contemptuously of Schuyler Colfax, and wonders why the people should show him so much courtesy and attention. Mr. Colfax has done more for the Pacific coast during the past ten years than any man in Congress; but there is a little too much loyalty in his composition to suit the Examiner. That's what's the matter.

A PLACERVILLE, Cal., paper says that Colfax, in his address to the people assembled to welcome him at that city, gave an expression to a trait in our national character peculiarly belonging to the Americans—namely, their desire to extort an oration or speech from every man, great or small, and upon like occasions. He said they required an oration upon every occasion, and the habit was growing so rapidly that they would soon have orations pronounced at the christening of their babies!

ARRIVED.—Col. Doty, son of our late, universally esteemed Governor, arrived here yesterday, to pay a visit to his respected mother.

THE following, says the Sacramento Bee, are the prices of fruit in the San Francisco market. Apples 5 to 15c, appricots, 8 to 25c, pears 5 to 15c, plums 8 to 25c, peaches 20 to 40c, cherries 40 to 66c, figs 30 to 50c, strawberries 15 to 25c, raspberries 25 to 35, blackberries 35 to 50, gooseberries 8 to 15, currants 20 to 30, oranges $5 per 100 pounds.

ALL quiet—orderly—as usual—in Camp Douglas. Nothing stirring along the "bench" to suggest a single item. The "bold soier boys" have been laboring pro bono publico for a few days past, improving bad places in the roads converging close to camp, so that driving up and around there, now, is smooth and splendid. An A No. 1 Restaurant has been opened in Camp Douglas, close to the theatre.

BEHIND THE TIMES.—In his Proclamation for the appropriate observance of the Fourth of July, at Denver, his Honor, the Mayor, is thus made to speak, through one of the Denver papers: "In order that the birth of our National Independence, which occurred seventy-nine years ago, may be fittingly celebrated," &c. Evidently, either Mayor Clark or ye compositor is ten years too slow—and we hardly think it is his Honor!

INCONSISTENT.—We are assured that no man can get a lease, by the month or season, for any of those buildings on the east side of Main street between 1st South street and the Temple block, without it specifies absolutely that no wines or liquors shall be sold in the said building, because, forsooth, it is consecrated ground—Church property! And yet the City—Church liquor store stands in the very middle of it, controlling and commanding all the liquor trade of town! Oh, Consistency, Consistency, jewel as thou art, bide thy radiance in the dust!

RECENTLY 1 1 4 pounds of rock, from the Mohawk Ledge, on Gold Flat, Nevada county, Cal., were crushed in a hand mortar, and yielded, the result of $73! The proprietors are taking out rock at the rate of ten tons daily, and now have a quantity on the surface which they calculate will pay at least $100 per ton. This sounds astonishingly rich, but there have been found, in Owyhee, Idaho, and in Montana and Colorado, picked up pieces of gold-bearing quartz that beat that "all hollow."

BUSINESS is "livening up" in town, these days. Trains are rolling in from time to time, and immigrants for the north and west are gradually working their way this far. Hundreds, yes thousands of teams, with freight and pilgrims, are said to be scattered all along the line from here to Denver, and the major part of them this side of Halleck. We suppose the fear of being attacked by Indians will cause them to "go slow," or rather come slow, this way, until companies of hundreds in a train are organized to travel together.

DEATH OF BISHOP POTTER.—This venerable divine died at San Francisco on the 5th, of fever contracted while coming from Philadelphia to California. He died soon after the steamer reached the wharf. Bishop Potter has been bishop of Pennsylvania for many years past, and the author of many learned books on Protestant Episcopal doctrines. His son is the present bishop of the diocese of New York. The deceased was 65 years of age. He was a self-made man, having entered Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., when a boy, paying his tuition by doing chores at college, such as ringing the bell and sweeping out.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General subscription Agent for the sale of United States securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per Cent.

Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent, amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10th in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Nora in the Vale.

"None on earth, but one in heaven!"
And the words are murmured low:
For the memory of her lost one
Fills the mother's heart with woe.
One long, sunny, glittering ringlet,
Clipped from off that infant brow,
Is the only thing remaining
Of her little Nora now.

"None on earth, but one in heaven!"
Swells the father's aching breast.
Ah! he sees a lovely vision
Of the dear one laid to rest,
Where the old oak tree is waving,
And the violets, meek and pale,
Bloom above the fair child sleeping—
There lies Nora in the vale.
